Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. Under date of 16 December 1949 General Constantin Petre-Lazar, aide to King Mihai, communicated to General Nicolae Radescu, President of the Rumanian National Committee, the wishes of King Mihai relative to the work of the Committee. General Petre-Lazar stated that the King desired the National Committee to maintain its headquarters and its Secretariat General in Washington, D. C., and suggested that the work of the Committee would be simplified if all members of the Committee resided in or near that city.

2. General Petre-Lazar informed General Radescu that the King desired to receive all materials that were published following Radescu's press conference on Vishinsky's statement to the United Nations Assembly relative to the formation of the Groza Government in 1945. At the same time the King, through General Petre-Lazar, expressed his disappointment that the National Committee as a body had not taken action to reply to Vishinsky. . .

4. General Radescu was informed that his letter to the King, dated 6 December 1949 contained "extremely grave affirmations which concern the very existence of the National Committee and which are of great national interest." General Petre-Lazar stated that King Mihai desired the opinion of the National Committee on this letter, the contents of which were not divulged.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
